The speaker of the day ,John Lindroff gave an interesting account of the people of Norway to-day.

Norway is better off than any other nation of Europe to-day. The food situation is very good. There is no Starvation. The people of Norway send a package of food to other countries each day.

There are many foster parents in Norway. 9000 refugee children have been given food and recreat on by the people of Norway.

The people of Norway are well-dressed. The clothing situation is much better than expected.

The housing situation is serious. Records of the number of rooms and people occupying them are kept on an account. Much building is being done.

Norway felt the brunt of the war the first 8 weeks and bondage.

Lunch was served by the Norway Methodist Ladies Aid.
