

1984

Fifty-Ninth Annual Slooper Meeting

Jay Rosdail, Chairman, called the 59th annual meeting to order. Leona Williamson, Secretary, read the minutes of the 58th meeting. They were approved.

Weston Fruland read the Treasurer's report.

Expenses	$48.50	Collection	$49.00
----------	---------	------------	---------

Bank balance was $507.89. Erma Fruland was paid $250.00 for her work on the books. $75.00 was paid to the Norwegian Museum. Racheal Southcombe reported that there are still 111 Slooper Books for sale. She reported $450.00 had been added to the Treasury for the sale of Slooper Books.

Officers for next year:

Charles Mies volunteered to be President
Mary Jane (Mrs. Stanley Nelson) of Newark is Vice President
Mildred Hanley, Secretary
Weston Fruland, Treasurer

The above named officers were elected.

Pastor Halverson read from 2nd Timothy concerning Family Heritage.

Erma Fruland suggested planning a special celebration next year in honor of the 160 years the Norwegians have been in America. It was suggested we invite the Sons of Norway to help plan the celebration.

Charles Mies made a motion to have the meal at 1 P.M., and then have the business meeting and program.

The meeting was adjourned.

Mrs. Lowell Larson played a medley of Norwegian folk tunes on the harmonica.

Dr. Jim Rosdail and wife, Mildred, and Orin Peterson, took a 2500 mile trip by steamer up the coast of Norway from Bergan to Russia. Mildred Rosdail narrated and showed beautiful slides of their trip.

The collection was $45.25 and $10.00 rent expenses for the Norway Community Building.

The 1985 meeting of the Slooper Society of America will be in the Norway Community Building October 6th. The pot luck dinner will be at 1 P.M. The officers are to plan a program and entertainment.

Mildred Hanley, Secretary